"Well! Well!" That's the way you feel after one or two of Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets have done their work. You feel well, instead of bilious and constipated; your sick headache, dizziness and indigestion are gone. It's done mildly and easily, too. You don't have to feel worse before you feel better. That is the trouble with the huge, old-fashioned pill. These are small, sugar-coated, easiest to take. One little Pellet's a laxative, three to four are cathartic.

They regulate and cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels—quickly, but thoroughly. They're the cheapest pill, sold by druggists, because you only pay for the good you get.

FORCES ARRIVING

For the Great Battle of Next Week.

Harrison and Blaine Men Enthusiastic,

And Neither Man Stands Any Show,

If You Will Let the Other's Friends Tell It.

The Blaine Boom Seems to Have Run Into a Washout or Got Side-Tracked Somewhere on the Road.

New York, June 3.—A Washington special to the Herald says its correspondent yesterday obtained from a gentleman close to the president the inside of Mr. Harrison's and Mr. Blaine's relations with each other. Before Mr. Blaine came to New York he called on the president and in substance said to him: "In connection with my visit to New York you will probably hear that it has a political meaning. A construction may be put on it that will please neither you nor me. I wish to say to you that I am not a candidate for the nomination, and hope you will not credit any of these stories that are flying about."

To this Mr. Harrison is said to have replied: "I am much gratified at your open dealing with me. I had supposed you felt this way toward a nomination, although some persons have tried to persuade me differently."

The interview between the president and his secretary of state was not a long one, and they parted in the most friendly manner.

DON'T YOU BELIEVE IT.

A Report in Circulation that Harrison Will Withdraw.

New York, June 3.—A special to the Advertiser from Washington says a gentleman who is close to the president and who enjoys his confidence, is authority for the statement that if Mr. Blaine does not withdraw from the nomination race, Mr. Harrison will. He says that if by Saturday night Mr. Blaine has not written a letter again declining the use of his name in the Minneapolis convention he will have practically admitted that he is a candidate. Mr. Harrison will then feel it his duty to withdraw from the contest. He will, it is said, write a letter to that effect.

NEW AND CONGER.

They Have a Wordy War in the West Hotel.

Minneapolis, June 3.—John C. New and A. L. Conger, the Ohio Blaine leader, had a bit of an encounter in one of the corridors of the West hotel last night. There has been bad blood between these two men, who were formerly good friends, but who have been separated by force of political circumstances. They had been talking at one another through the newspapers a good deal, but until last night had not met.

"I know what is the matter with you, Conger," said New. "You didn't get your man appointed postmaster at Akron. That is all there is to it, and that is the only explanation of your anti-Harrison attitude."

Conger replied indignantly and the talk ran pretty high though both gentlemen kept their tempers.

The Harrison followers had an informal caucus last night at the West but nothing definite was done pending the arrival of the remainder of the Indiana delegation.

A meeting of the delegation is scheduled for to-morrow.

It is now given out that J. Sloat Fassett has declined the temporary chairmanship, which had been informally tendered to him by the sub-committee.

He preferred not to banish himself from the floor of the convention even during the opening hours.

The national committee will likely meet to-morrow to settle on the man.

OHIO WILL BE DIVIDED.

Gov. McKinley Talks Concerning the Vote of the Buckeyes.

Akron, O., June 3.—Gov. McKinley passed through Akron on his way from Canton to Columbus. In response to a question as to the vote of the Ohio delegation at Minneapolis the governor said:

"I suppose the delegation will be divided, as I know there is some anti-Harrison sentiment in the state. The casting of the vote of the Ohio delegation will depend somewhat on the circumstances attending the convention and the developments which take place at and prior to it, and cannot be definitely foretold."

INTO A WASHOUT.

The Blaine Boom Stalled at Some Point on the Road.

Minneapolis, June 3.—The Blaine boom has not yet made its appearance. There is some solicitude over this fact, but it is not denied even by the Blaine men that the boom is late in appearing.

Senator Washburn gave a little Blaine dinner at his palatial residence "Fair Oaks" last night, at which Clarkson, Fassett, Payne and the other sub-committeemen, who are just now the custodians of the Blaine boom, were honored guests.

Those who were present are rather reticent about the proceedings and maintain that is was simply a little social gathering.

It is considered significant that none of Washburn's friends in the Harrison camp were invited, and it is generally believed that the Blaine plan of campaign was pretty carefully mapped out.

It was determined to open up Blaine headquarters somewhere as a sort of center of influence from which the workers can draw inspiration and instructions. This action will be taken tentatively and not openly.

The determination to force Blaine into the fight and keep him there is making the Harrison managers more and more bitter. They are getting exceedingly touchy. Behind every tree they see a Blaine spook skulking. As an instance of this is cited the kick that has just been registered by John C. New and his supporters against the big club mass meeting to be held in the convention hall Tuesday evening just after the convention assembles.

The Harrisonians profess to have discovered in this a big scheme to boom Blaine just when it would do the most good. They assert that the sub-committee refuse to permit the meeting unless it could name the speakers. This was conceded by President John Goodnow, of the Minneapolis State League of Clubs, whose pet idea is the mass meeting for the spreading of republican doctriines in the northwest.

It has been announced that one of the principal speakers will be Gov. Foraker of Ohio, who is one of the leaders of the anti-Harrison movement. This fact is considered by the Harrisonians significant of the purpose to start a great big Blaine boom just after the convention has assembled.

WHAT HALE SAYS.

He Thinks Blaine Will Run if Nominated.

New York, June 3.—A special to the Herald from Washington says that Senator Eugene Hale, of Maine, a close friend of Secretary Blaine, told its correspondent yesterday that Mr. Blaine will certainly accept if nominated.

The secretary of state, Mr. Hale declared, will remain passive and allow things to take their own course.

HAS BLAINE ON THE HIP.

Harrison Has an Important Letter from the Secretary.

Indianapolis, June 3.—A friend of Consul General New says the latter told him just before leaving for Minneapolis that President Harrison was not at all worried over the efforts of Blaine's friends to force him upon the party as a candidate, and that Harrison has a personal letter from Blaine that would settle the matter in a moment if he would make it public.

New said Harrison would not give it to the press because he believed he would be nominated without a struggle, and it was unnecessary to inject any personal matters into the campaign for the nomination.

Besides he feels that he is entitled to an expression from the convention, unbiased by any such influences, and he proposes to stand or fall by his record. New also said that the letter reiterated Blaine's determination not to be a candidate, and there could be no mistake about it, for he had seen and read the letter. The Harrison men say the president sustains a very different relation to the convention from that of other supposed candidates, for, while Alger or Sherman might feel it a compliment to be nominated even after Blaine had secured the plum and thrown it from him, Harrison could not afford to do so, for it would make him the laughing stock of the country.

M'KINLEY FOR CHAIRMAN.

Ohio's Governor to be Honored at the Convention.

Minneapolis, June 3.—The subcommittee of the National committee has held a brief meeting. There were present A. L. Congr, of Ohio, chairman; H. S. Hyde, of Massachusetts; Henry C. Payne, of Wisconsin; J. Sloat Fassett, of New York; and J. S. Clarkson, of Iowa. After the adjournment of the committee the following official declaration was given out for publication:

"The subcommittee of the National Republican committee, at their meeting, after having visited the convention hall and informed itself completely of the arrangements made and to be made for the comfort and convenience of the large number of people expected to attend the convention, unanimously expressed their entire approbation thereof, the hall being in every way the best that ever contained a national convention, and the arrangements for the accommodation of the delegates and the public at large to their complete satisfaction."

The committee also adopted a resolution requesting the delegates from the various states to select as soon as possible, either at home or immediately on their arrival in the city, the following officers of the convention: an honorary secretary, of convention, an honorary vice president of convention, member of committee on credentials, member of committee on permanent organization, member of committee on rules and order of business, member of committee on resolutions, member of Republican National committee, member of committee to notify candidate for president of his nomination, member of committee to notify candidate for vice president.

It is generally accepted that Governor William McKinley, of Ohio, will be permanent chairman of the convention. He is the choice of the Harrison element, and for political reasons it is not likely to be opposed by the Blaine managers. Indeed Colonel Conger acknowledged that it is quite probable McKinley will be the unanimous choice of all factions for permanent chairman. The governor has been apprised by telegraph of his coming honors and his friends expect he will leave Ohio to-morrow night for Minneapolis.

THE PLATFORM.

The Silver Question Bound to Play an Important Part.

Minneapolis, June 3.—The formation of the platform is already being discussed, those having pet measures to be indorsed being among the first arrivals.

An indorsement of protection and reciprocity is, of course, to be embodied as the chief principles. Some stir was occasioned by the report that ex-Gov. John S. Pillsbury, a delegate-at-large from Minneapolis, whose presidential preference has thus far been kept to himself, intended to introduce an anti-second term resolution, and the opposition to the president has drawn much comfort from the report which they have been nursing industriously.

The governor, however, explains that he simply believes in one term of six years, and he would probably introduce a resolution to that effect, but when his attention was called to the supposed bearing of such a resolution on the candidacy of President Harrison, he added very emphatically: "If it would affect the present standing of any of the candidates I would not introduce it."

He further declares that up to the present time he has not fully decided how he shall vote, leaving his decision until he confers with his colleagues of the Minnesota delegation.

Whatever the then final action may be, the silver question is bound to play an important part in the platfrom work and there are those here who are working their hardest on that one subject.

B. Clark Wheeler, of Colorado, a delegate to the convention, and the advance guard from that state, is most decided in his views. He says for himself and also for his colleagues that they are against Harrison solely because of his position on the coinage question.

He does not believe Harrison could run on a silver platform, and while he is working for silver he proposes to work against the president. There are, he says, 40,000 voters in Colorado pledged to vote against Harrison and against any anti-free silver coinage party, and he is here to secure the passage of a silver plank. The silver men have no candidate. They are against Harrison and want free silver indorsed.

COLLIDED WITH A PIER.

A River Steamer Wrecked and Part of the Crew Drowned.

Van Buren, Ark., June 3.—The steamer John Mathews, loaded with corn, bound for Pine Bluff, ran against the pier on the bridge over the Arkansas river at an early hour yesterday morning and sank. Capt. Black, the pilot, was swept away and drowned. It is stated that at least one-third of the crew are drowned. The engineer, Hathaway, and his family, consisting of three children, were rescued with great difficulty. The river is unusually high and it was impossible for the pilot to steer away from the pier. Rescuing parties are at work attempting to save the rest of the crew.

WAGING A BITTER WAR

Seamen's Union and the Knights of Labor.

Biemel is Still Master of the Situation.

News of the Great Lakes Gathered from the Wires for Readers of the Bee.

Chicago, June 3.—(Special Marine Service)—There is fierce rivalry between the Lake Carriers' shipping office, under Capt. Biemel, and the Chicago Seamen's union at this port as to which shall supply crews to vessels.

It is a life and death struggle between the two organizations and the result here in Chicago is watched with interest by the vessel men and sailors at all other ports.

The headquarters of the Seamens' union are in Chicago and the officers of the union will naturally put forth their greatest efforts to hold their own in this, their former stronghold.

A walking delegate of the union went aboard the barge Newell Eddy, lying near Twelfth street, in the river, on Wednesday afternoon and notified the crew that, as they had made a round trip on the vessel they must now come off and give other sailors a chance.

The men told the walking delegate that they didn't take orders from the union; that they were in the employ of the barge Newell Eddy; were put on board by Shipping Master Biemel and proposed to remain there. The delegate told them that they would be taken off. He took the number of the star of the officer who was stationed on board and said policemen would soon be withdrawn from vessels also.

Shipping Master Biemel heard of the occurrence and went to the Eddy and remained on board all night Wednesday night, until relieved by a regular police officer yesterday morning. He says he has no doubt at all that a raid was intended on the vessel during the night.

A Union skirmisher was along the wharf during the night, however, and saw Biemel, and the union committee evidently concluded not to come aboard.

A delegate visited the schooner David Vance several days ago and after having talked unavailingly to the Lake Carriers' crew he took the number of the policeman's star, saying that policemen had no business aboard these vessels. The officers of the union take the position that the city has no right to use regular policemen as special watchmen on board vessels in the harbor, saying that just so many men are withdrawn from their regular duty patroling beats in the city; that if vessels want protection they should call upon the United States marshal and have deputy marshals on board.

Shipping Master Biemel says he shall go steadily forward in his work as he has begun, and will supply all the association vessels which ask for crews. He supplied a vessel at South Chicago with a crew Wednesday and expected to put two crews aboard vessels in Chicago harbor last night, and he will see to it that all the crews he furnishes are protected while on board. A telephone was put in the shipping office yesterday, the number being 3658 Main.

Capt. Biemel reports that the schooner Ida Keith came into Chicago yesterday with a Lake carrier crew on board, who are being given police protection. When the vessel left Chicago on the down trip she took a union crew with her, but the captain reported that he couldn't get along with them, and that he had put them ashore at Port Huron.

New Drydock.

The Chicago Shipbuilding company, on the Calumet river at One Hundred and First street, is considering the advisability of building a drydock of the largest class on their property there, but before making the very large outlay required they desire, if possible, to obtain information as to the amount and character of repair work upon vessels which they may reasonably depend to reimburse themselves. The proposed dock would not be less than 400 feet long, 100 feet in width at the top and 60 feet in the bottom, with 16 feet of water over the keel-blocks and a 70-foot gate.

The location will be in the Calumet river about a mile from Lake Michigan with only five bridges intervening. The river has been dredged by the United States government to a depth of 16 feet to a point far above the Chicago company's yard. It seems likely that at last there is to be a drydock in the neighborhood of Chicago capable of hauling out the largest craft now afloat on the lakes, and which are to be added to the lake marine within the next five years.

Another Disastrous Collision.

Detroit, June 3.—Another river collision occurred near Wyandotte last night. The schooner Magnet, one of the tow of the steamburge Grover Steward, bound up with lumber, was run into by the schooner Glenora, which was in another tow, and sank in 15 feet of water. She lies near the steamer Progress which was sunk Wednesday night. The Magnet is owned by W. E. Rice, of Buffalo.

Rhoada Stewart Aground.

Amherstburg, June 3.—Steam barge Rhoda Stewart and consort bound down with lumber, are aground on Mamajuda island, just west of wreck of steamer Progress.

More Accidents—The Briton.

Cleveland, June 3.—The steamer Briton which sank the Progress in Detroit river yesterday, is here. She is in very bad shape and repairs will be very costly.

The John W. Moore struck at the Soo and is in bad shape. Great difficulty is encountered in removing the cargo on account of the water in the hold.

DIVISION TERMINALS.

Mansfield Willing to Spend $100,000 to Get Them.

Mansfield, O., June 3.—A few days ago Mansfield voted almost unanimously, for the issuing of $100,000 bonds for the purpose of securing funds to provide for the establishment here of division terminals and other railroad advantages by the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railway company.

A proposition, solicited by the company, from the city of Mansfield, is now under consideration by the directory of the Pennsylvania company, and a favorable answer is expected within a few days.

It is uncertain, in the event that the company changes ends of division from Crestline to this city, whether the shops there will be abandoned, or whether the Allegheny shops will be removed to Mansfield.

AFRAID OF THE RESULTS

Sir John Thompson Will Not Be on the Commission.

Ottawa, Ont., June 3.—Sir John Thompson has not accepted the position of British representative in the Bering sea arbitration which has been offered to him by Lord Salisbury and it is doubtful whether he will do so.

It is felt in political circles that it would be unwise for one who is practically the chief advocate of Canada to take such a position, because if the decision of the arbitrary powers, France and Sweden, should be in favor of the United States, Canada's situation would be one of deep humiliation.

MADE A SETTLEMENT.

Boston, June 3.—At a meeting yesterday the creditors of Damon Brothers, lessees of Hotel Huntington, agreed to accept 25 cents on a dollar in full settlement of their claims. The amount involved is said to be about $50,000. The firm attributes its embarrassment to high rent. The firm also runs the Hotel Thorndyke here and the Atlantic House at Nantasket, beach, both of which pay well.

CONGRESS MAY DECIDE

Many Complications in the Coming Election.

Three Western States to be Aided by Democrats,

So That the Choice of the President Will Fall Into the Hands of the House of Representatives.

Sioux City, Ia., June 3.—Mr. M. F. Harrington, a prominent democratic politician of northern Nebraska, said in an interview yesterday that orders had been issued from democratic headquarters that Nebraska, South Dakota and Kansas must be delivered over to the people's party.

In Nebraska, he added, the democrats will nominate no electoral ticket this year.

The democrats will have their own state ticket but will support the alliance electoral ticket. The same will be done in the other states mentioned, and while the democrats will gain nothing, the republicans will lose in what has been heretofore their stronghold.

The election will be thrown into the house of representatives.

GAMBLERS GO BROKE.

A Paris Bucket Shop in Trouble.

Many Women Were Among the Customers Who Lost by the Failure.

Paris, June 3.—A sensation has been caused in speculative circles by the news that Blondel & Garnier, outside, or what in America would be known as bucket shop brokers, have defaulted.

The exact amount due to their customers is not ascertained, and is not likely to be, as many who dealt with them would hardly care to have the fact known.

It is believed, however, that the loss is considerable. Their place was largely a resort for lady speculators, both of the reputable and the shady classes, and they have been looked upon heretofore as dealing fairly with their patrons.

The defalcation is being investigated and may result in criminal prosecution.

Later information goes to show that the defalcation of Blondel & Garnier is a very serious affair, and that large sums entrusted to them for speculation have disappeared. One woman who had entrusted her earnings to the firm for speculation is a well-known member of the demimonde who had concluded to reform, much to the disappointment of a number of admirers, and to retire on what she had saved. She is now left penniless.

A leading government official is among the losers to a large amount. The affairs of the firm are in such a condition that it will take some time to balance the books. Several complaints have already it is stated, been made to the police and it is said that the latter are taking steps to prosecute.

HA! HA! HA! AHA! HA! HA!

Prince Henry, of Battenburg, Tells a Story.

He Would Get Sixty Days if He Sprung the Same Story on an American Audience.

London, June 3.—Prince Henry of Battenburg, husband of Princess Beatrice, Queen Victoria's youngest daughter, presided last night at the twentieth anniversary festival of the Providence Surgical Appliance society, the object of which is to give artificial legs, arms, noses and teeth to poor people who have lost their members by accident, and in course of the proceedings proved himself something of a humorist.

He told the company that it was a trifle incongruous to conclude a banquet with a discussion about artificial arms, noses and teeth, and wound up with a story of a young woman who had lost her nose by a cancer, and had been fitted with an imitation member decidedly Roman in shape.

The boys of the village, however, ridiculed her appearance and made her life miserable, and as a result she returned in grief to the society and beseeched it to consider her plight.

The institution, according to the prince, was equal to the occasion, for it succeeded in supplying her with an attractive little nose, charmingly chiffonne, tip-tilted like the pupil of a flower, and which not only made all her companions envious, but had already secured her more than one offer of marriage.

The prince wound up the story by giving a subscription of 25 guineas for the fund of the institution.

BOUND TO GET MARRIED.

Cincinnati, June 3.—The engagement of Miss Betty, the daughter of Millionaire Fleischman, to C. R. Holmes, a local physician, is announced. Miss Fleischman recently gave the mitten to Count Dogotheetti, who is now in Chicago, because he would not become a citizen.

RAILROAD SECURITIES.

London, June 3.—Two important rumors created considerable disturbance to-day in American railroad circles. One was that Mr. Morgan had disposed of his interest in Reading. Another report that caused no little agitation was that the Denver dividend had been passed.

DANGER IN CHINA

Another Anti-Christian War Probable.

The Country Flooded With Pamphlets

To Arouse the Ignorant Inhabitants.

A General Crusade Has Been Started.

The General Government at Pekin Knows of the Danger, but Will Take No Step to Stop It.

London, June 3.—A dispatch from Shanghai says that considerable apprehension is felt of a renewal of the anti-foreign agitation.

Placards of a strongly anti-Christian character have been posted up at Wusung and even worse placards are posted in Hunan.

The center of the movement seems to be in the latter province. The hall of the Lent society of Changsha, the capital of the province of Hunan, is frequented by the higher officials of the province, by natives of the place, who are officials elsewhere and who are at home on leave, and by the usual horde of expectant officials who have obtained mandarin rank by examination or otherwise, but have not received employment.

Here the anti-Christian agitation is fomented. The excitement grows by constant discussion; newcomers from all parts of the country bring fresh fuel to the flame, and at length the members of the club enter into the extraordinary Hunan compact the text of which has been published.

To pay the expense of disseminating anti-foreign literature, the rich members subscribe large sums—eight of them paying in equal shares for the printing and distributing of 800,000 copies of one pamphlet—the poorer ones giving their personal services by writing or illustrating the placards and pamphlets, so that the man who cannot read can at least understand from the pictures.

That officials are in sympathy with the agitation is shown by the fact that the pamphlet and placards are for the most part printed and distributed from pawn shops, which, though nominally private institutions, are really owned by officials to whom licenses are granted to carry on the business.

The literature just compiled is disseminated all over the districts adjoining the Yang Tse, the placards posted everywhere in the town, and side by side with official proclamations on the walls of the public departments, and the pamphlets are circulated by hundreds of thousands amongst an ignorant and superstitious population.

Meantime the central government at Pekin remains supine and indifferent to the danger.

PALACIO'S FORCES ROUTED

Terrific Fighting all Along the Line.

The Government Troops in Full Retreat and Headed Toward the City of Valencia.

Valencia, Venezuela, June 3.—An important battle has been fought near this town and resulted in the defeat of Palacio's forces.

Terrific fighting occurred all along the line and the route of the government troops was most complete.

They are in full retreat toward this city.

Ex-President Rojas Paul has come out openly in favor of the rebellion. He has gone to Curacao.

THE READING COMBINE.

Chancellor McGill Comments on the Case.

New York, June 3.—Chancellor McGill, who has granted an injunction against two of the roads in the big coal combine, the New Jersey Central and the Port Reading company, explained yesterday the effect of his order. He said:

"In the proceedings brought by the Attorney General I granted an injunction ad interim. This acts as a stay against the arbitrary raising of the price of coal until the matter is argued and decided.

"By the arbitrary raising of the price I mean that the price shall not be raised pending the proceeding in the ordinary pursuit of business.

"This does not include such extraordinary incidents as strikes and matters of a nature not customary. The injunction in the other case was obtained by the heirs of Stephen Vail, who held 14,000 shares of stock in the New Jersey Central railroad company.

"In 1886 the executors of the estate brought suit to set aside a lease made to the Reading company. They have repeated the same tactics in this case and I granted an order to show cause why an injunction should not issue. The order is returnable June 16. A temporary injunction restraining the parties to the proceeding from transferring or changing the identity of the property was granted with the order. This order covers machinery, tools and the like."

HE WORKED THE NABOBS

An Alleged Count Played His Cards Nicely.

He Lost Thirty Thousand Dollars in Order to Win Sixty Thousand.

London, June 3.—An extraordinay scandal is reported from Paris. About two months ago two members of the Cercle de l'Epatent, one of the most exclusive and fashionable clubs of the gay French metropolis, proposed as a candidate the name of a count, a nobleman of a well-known south of France family whose acquaintance they had made at a southern watering place.

He was elected, and his distinguished manners and genial bearing at the card table, where he lost nearly $30,000 in a fortnight, soon rendered him generally popular.

Immediately on the heels of these losses he commenced to win and continued to be fortunate until he had not only won back all that he had lost, but as much more.

A few days ago a member of the club returning from abroad was introduced to the count.

It happened, however, that he had met the count before, and it was very soon developed that the latter was none else than a well-known card-sharp at Nice and other winter resorts. The result of the exposure was that the count, by order of the house committee of the club, was expelled by the servants on next putting in an appearance, while his two sponsors were requested to send in their resignations without delay.

HABBELER GETS IT.

He Will Accompany Mr. Colburn to Chicago.

Richard Ford and C. E. Werden Go as Alternates.

The Democratic Convention Very Harmonious—Cleveland First Choice for President—Hurd for Delegate at Large.

Delegates—W. J. Colburn, of Lucas; Wm. Habbeler, of Ottawa.

Alternates—Richard Ford, of Lucas; Chas. E. Werden, of Fulton.

Elector—L. C. Cole, of Wood.

The above is briefly the result of the district democratic convention in Druid hall yesterday.

The prolonged contest at the district democratic convention yesterday was prolific of a thorough understanding and good feeling, and different from the republican district convention held some time ago where Lucas tried to hog the whole platter. Everyone was well pleased and satisfied that the democracy of Lucas desires to do what is fair with the new brethren of the outside counties.

The chairmanship, secretaryship, one delegate, one alternate and the elector were given to the three outside counties.

Another noticeable thing was that Cleveland was the unanimous choice of the convention, and although the delegates go uninstructed their vote will be given for Cleveland as the situation now stands. Frank Hurd retains his hold on the hearts of the democracy of this section. This was evident from the applause which greeted his name when incidentally mentioned with that of Grover Cleveland in Mr. Cole's speech.

Right royally did the three outside counties stand by their respective counties for 20 ballots. Cole was in the lead, and only needed four in the nineteenth ballot, when in a happy and thoroughly democratic speech he withdrew his name.

The tenth ballot had been taken when the Bee went to press yesterday. Lucas county continued to divide her vote and Ottawa continued to give her's solid for Habbeler. Fulton was true throughout to Werden, and Wood loyal to Cole for 19 ballots.

The utmost harmony prevailed. The delegates from the outside counties kept their seats and took things easy, while the delegates from Lucas went into caucus frequently. Cole, Habbeler and Werden had each their supporters in Lucas, and there was not a break.

Numerous motions to adjourn were made, but were promptly defeated.

Mr. Daniel Dowling moved to adjourn at 3 o'clock for an hour. This was defeated.

At 4 o'clock Wm. Mylander moved to adjourn until June 9, but this, too, was defeated.

It was evident that the outside delegates had decided to place the responsibility of electing the second delegate on the shoulders of Lucas county. Lucas kicked, and at about 4:30 went into caucus and resolved to divide her vote equally between the three candidates. She then sat down to await developments.

It was close on 5 o'clock when Mr. Cole mounted a seat, and in a rattling speech withdrew his name. He said he had hoped to go to Chicago and vote for Grover Cleveland. He paid a handsome compliment to Mr. Hurd.

This settled the question of second delegate. Wood wheeled into line with her 23 votes for Habbeler, of Ottawa.

The twentieth ballot was as follows:

	Habbeler.	Werden.
Fulton		9
Lucas	21	21
Ottawa	15	..
Wood	23	..
Total	59	30

Mr. Habbeler was therefore declared elected.

It was easy sailing after this.

Mr. Werden, on motion of Mr. John Bolan, was elected alternate by acclamation, as was also Mr. Richard Ford, of Air Line Junction.

Mr. Cole was nominated for elector. He at first declined, but was prevailed upon to accept, and he was elected by acclamation.

READY FOR THE DEMOCRATS.

The Great Chicago Wigwam Is Completed.

Chicago, June 3.—The various committees appointed to arrange the various details for the forthcoming democratic national convention are now holding daily sessions, and the arrangements are making rapid progress.

Nearly $50,000 have been subscribed towards the expenses of the event, and but little doubt is entertained but that as much more as may be needed will be forthcoming.

It has been decided to dedicate the wigwam on the night before the convention with addresses by democrats of national reputation.

The finishing touches have been given to the huge structure on the lake front, and the contractor expects to be able to hand it over to the committee to-morrow night.

ROARING, CRACKLING AND BUZZING

Catarrh of the Middle Ear.

Catarrh of the middle ear, even after serious deafness has been produced, is curable by a faithful use of Pe-ru-na.

Mr. Frederick Bierman, of McComb City, Miss., had chronic catarrh very badly for many years. The disease finally passed up the eustachian tube into the middle ear, and had almost destroyed his hearing. He has been taking Pe-ru-na but a short time, and his catarrh is very much better, and he hears again as well as anyone.

Mr. W. D. Stokes, Baton Rouge, La., writes: "I had chronic catarrh very badly, noise in the ears, and nearly deaf. I used your Pe-ru-na according to directions and am now well; can hear the tick of a watch ten feet. Your Pe-ru-na is a wonderful medicine."

Mr. J. W. McRobert, of Mason, Mich., box 156, writes February 25, 1891: "My wife had been afflicted with catarrh of the head for fifteen years, and was cured by taking three bottles of Pe-ru-na."

The eustachian tubes are small tubes, about two inches long, leading from the upper and back part of the throat to the middle ear. If anything happens to obstruct the eustachian tubes hearing is very much impaired, if not entirely destroyed. Catarrh of the throat most commonly follows up these little ducts to the middle ear, thickening their mucous linings so as to completely or partially close them up, producing partial deafness. The roaring and crackling sounds which catarrh subjects so frequently complain of is due to the spread of catarrh to these tubes.

Pe-ru-na is the best, if not the only, remedy that will cure these cases. Taken regularly according to directions on the bottle the symptoms gradually disappear until a complete cure is the result. In some cases it takes months to effect a cure, while in others only weeks are required.

Colds, coughs, bronchitis, sore throat and pleurisy are quickly curable by Peru-na. Each bottle of Pe-ru-na is accompanied by full directions for use, and is kept by most druggists. Get your druggist to order it for you if he does not already keep it. A pamphlet on the cause and cure of all catarrhal diseases and consumption sent free to any address by the Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Co. of Columbus, O.

GASOLINE EXPLOSION.

Mr. William Beck Severely Burned,

And a Portion of His Store Knocked Into Smithereens—Taken to the Hospital.

The inhabitants in the vicinity of the corner of Collingwood and Indiana avenues were startled last evening by a cannon-like report followed by a shock which rattled the windows and doors.

On investigation, it was found that a barrel of gasoline in the cellar below Beck Bros.' grocery, on the corner of Indiana and Collingwood avenues, had exploded, and almost wrecked the building, a frame structure.

Shortly after 7 o'clock, Wm. Beck went into the cellar to draw a half gallon of gasoline for a customer. While he had the faucet open the explosion occurred. Beck was thrown bodily to the end of the cellar among some barrels. The force of the shock that followed must have been terrific. The floor above the cellar was torn up, the shelves and counters of the store were jarred out of place, and the stock of goods scattered promiscuously over the building. The store is in a double building, the adjoining store being occupied by a tea store, conducted by John Maher. Mr. Maher was in his store at the time, and just after the explosion, found himself all in a heap in one corner of the room.

Crowds of excited people soon gathered about the building, a great many thinking an earthquake had occurred. Smoke was seen issuing from the holes in the floor, and an alarm of fire was turned in, while a number went into the cellar to endeavor to extinguish the flames, and found Mr. Beck lying in one corner suffering great agony. He was carried from the building and taken to St. Vincent's hospital, where every effort was made to relieve him. It was found that his face and chest had received the force of the burning fluid and the flesh was seared and burned in an awful manner, all the skin having been completely burned off.

This afternoon the patient was resting quite easily and will no doubt recover.

THE PRESIDENT'S WIFE.

She Is a Very Sick Woman and Her Friends Are Alarmed.

New York, June 3.—A special to the Herald from Washington says the many friends of Mr. Harrison are alarmed at the report that she has grown worse within the last few days. The report proves to be true, but it is not believed that Mrs. Harrison is in any immediate danger.

There is no doubt that she is extremely ill, so ill in fact that it has been deemed unwise to attempt to move her to the Cape May cottage.

It has been found necessary that Mrs. Harrison should have absolute quiet, to order the Marine band which has for years played on Saturdays in the white house grounds, to play hereafter in Lafayette park.

MARRIAGE WAS A FAILURE.

A Divorced Wife and Husband Try a New Deal.

Wilmington, Del., June 3.—A cablegram received here yesterday announced the marriage of the millionaire powder manufacturer, William Dupont, to Mrs. Annie R. Zinn, in London on Monday last. The message created a stir here, as both the bride and groom have only been recently divorced from their wife and husband respectively.

The bride comes from one of the oldest and wealthiest families in the state. It is thought Mr. and Mrs. Dupont will permanently reside in London.

CHAUNCEY IS A HUSTLER.

He Is Making Rapid Time in the West.

Chicago, June 3.—Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, who is likely to present the name of President Harrison to the Minneapolis convention, spent yesterday in this city attending the annual meeting of the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad company. This morning, with the directors and prominent officials of that company he left on a tour of inspection of the system. He will reach Minneapolis this evening, and to-morrow will go to Hudson, Wisconsin, to attend the annual meeting of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha road. He will return from there in time to deliver an address to-morrow night at Minneapolis under the auspices of the Press club of the Flour City.

LAUBIE NOMINATED.

Youngstown, O., June 3.—The republican convention of the Seventh judicial circuit, composed of the counties of Ashtabula, Belmont, Columbia, Carroll, Geauga, Guernsey, Harrison, Jefferson, Lake, Mahoning, Noble, Portage and Trumbull, nominated Judge Peter A. Laubie.

A LIGHT SENTENCE.

Youngstown, O., June 3.—Mrs. Whittaker, colored, was to-day fined $100 and sent to the workhouse six months for compelling her young daughter, aged 12 to engage in immoral practices and entertain visitors at her house of ill fame. Indictments will be returned against a number of married men who visited the place.

INTRODUCING A NOVELTY.

"You say you never have been engaged before, my sweet?"

"No, love."

"Well, that gives a novel piquancy to it. To think of my being engaged to a girl who has never been engaged before! But it must be unusually interesting to you."—Boston Post.

RAINED ON TOLEDO AGAIN

Indianapolis Takes a Game from Columbus.

Billie Barnie in the Western Association.

Healy Released by Baltimore—General News of the Diamond and Turf — Miscellaneous Mention.

Surprises never cease in base ball. Yesterday Boston had two runs to the good and St. Louis beat her out in the eighth. There must have been joy in Von Der Ahe's heart for once, but then Chris probably kicked because St. Louis did not make ten runs instead of three in that inning.

And to make the happenings of the day more spicy Indianapolis knocked Columbus down a peg in a well-played 4 to 3 game.

Baltimore got out the pruning knife and released Healy and Pickett. Healy may be a great pitcher, but he always has a pain in his stomach, or a kink in his leg, whenever a hard hitting team comes to town.

The telegraph also brought the news yesterday that Billie Barnie would succeed Alvord as manager of the Fort Wayne team, to take charge of the Robinson interest. Billie Barnie is the man who, it will be remembered, was a member of that famous "confidence" committee which tried to beat Toledo out of a franchise in the American association, and but for the pluck of the people behind the club at that time would have downed it.

And this, too, after Manager Morton of Toledo, had worked Barnie back into the American association after his disastrous Eastern league experience.

Base ball, like politics, makes strange bed fellows, and the ambition of Terre Haute may yet be satisfied and that city given a place in the Western. The Minneapolis papers have no use for their ball team, and with no Sunday games and no public sentiment in favor of base ball in that place, it would not be surprising to see the Minnies playing in some other town before the season closes.

Rain prevented Toledo from playing in Ft. Wayne yesterday. Omaha is the next Toledo date.

Pittsburg Phil, known as "The Morris Plunger," took $30,000 out of the Park track yesterday on King Cadmus, his colt, which was piloted by Garrison. Garrison rode the race of his life, and pushed Cadmus' nose under the wire out of a bunch of three horses that were neck and neck.

Kansas City, June 3.—The game between Kansas City and Omaha yesterday with the exception of Vickery's erratic pitching in the ninth inning, was a beautiful one. Kansas City won on hitting at the right time. Guenther, the new umpire, who succeeds Corcoran, pleased every body. Weather raw. Attendance 800. Score:

Little Rock, Ark., June 3.—A prize fight took place in this city Wednesday. The principals were Billy Robinson, a well-known local pugilist, and Swifter, a Cincinnati favorite. —::—::—

London, June 3.—The fight between Jack Slavin and Riordan took place last night. Slavin defeated Riordan in 19 rounds. The match was between Jack Slavin, of Australia, brother of Frank Slavin, who was defeated by Jackson a few nights ago, and Con Riordan, an American boxer, well known on the Pacific coast. According to the articles of agreement, which were signed on May 5, the men were to box 20 rounds under queensbury rules, with 4-ounce gloves, at catch weight, for a purse of 250 pounds, the contest to take place at the Ormonde club on June 2.

Terre Haute, Ind., June 3.—Ariel died Wednesday. Since it was reported several days ago that this good horse was about to die there has been a hard fight by the veterinarians and the horse himself to distance death. Friday night Hickock said: "He is not worth 10 cents; let the poor fellow die and end his pain." But the surgeon worked over him day and night two days longed. It was curious to note the effect of thunder and storm of Friday night upon this California horse, unused to such bursts, for they gave him a backset. Ariel, a chestnut gelding by Whips, dam a thoroughbred mare bred at Palo Alto, had been an untrainable horse and was bought by Hickok, who saw in him great qualities. He had an indomitable spirit, which did not yield to a 50-mile drive in a day, nor to 146 miles in five days. Mr. Hickok considered him good for three heats in 2:17 and that he could better lose all the rest of his stable than him.

—::—::—

Chicago, June 3.—A report which caused caused considerable excitement among baseball cranks prevailed last night to the effect that the New York base ball club was making an effort to secure the services of Adrian C. Anson as manager, captain and player of the club in that city. The negotiations, it is asserted, are nearing a successful termination. Anson is a heavy stockholder in the Chicago club, and the proposition is that in case he goes to New York he shall exchange his Chicago stock for a like amount in the New York club.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

A Discarded Woman Has Her Revenge in St. Louis.

St. Louis, June 3.—Last night Miss Maggie Sullivan, a domestic, employed in a residence in the western part of the city, sent a note to a former lover named Peter McCreech, at 4027 Fairfax avenue, requesting him to meet her at a point about two blocks from his home.

When McCreech met the woman she upbraided him for deserting her and marrying another woman.

After a few angry words Miss Sullivan drew a revolver and fired two shots at McCreech, one of the bullets lodging in his brain and inflicting a probably fatal wound.

The woman then fired a bullet into her right temple, killing herself almost instantly.

MILITARY MOVEMENTS.

London, June 3.—The Whitsuntide maneuvers of the volunteer forces commenced today. Over 40,000 volunteers are encamped on the wide stretches of camping ground in the Midland, Northern, Northwestern, Southeastern and Eastern Military districts. During the next five days the brigade system will be tested as far as possible in conjunction with the regular troops, and such militia and yeomanry regiments as may be out for the annual training.

CYCLONE IN CLARKE COUNTY.

Springfield, O., June 3.—Word has just reached here of a destructive cyclone in Pleasant and Harmony townships, eight miles from here. Forest trees were uprooted, orchards laid low, and outbuildings razed. The track of the storm was half a mile wide and grain fields were ruined. No fatalities are reported.

Catcher Fred Lake has deserted the Milwaukee team and has been placed on the blacklist by President Williams. It is said that Lake made an effort to break into the Eastern association under an assumed name.

Milwaukee is after Jimmy Donahue to fill Catcher Lake's place. It is doubtful, however, if the players' committee will assign Donahue to the Brewers when Indianapolis and several clubs need strengthening. Minneapolis could use Donahue to good advantage now that Munyan has been suspended from "boozing."

THINK OF NAUGHT BUT OFFICE.

Queer Peculiarities of People Native to the National Capital.

The native of these parts is somebody by himself, says the Washington correspondent of the Kansas City Times. His origin is office. The paradise of Washington began as an Eden of offices with an officeholding Adam and Eve. The original of the race was an officeholder of appointive sort, perpetuated in his place and permitted by providence to have children. Just as animals born in captivity are affected by their unwonted environment, so does humanity born in office bear the marks thereof. The native male Washingtonian is essentially small; small mentally, small physically. I won't say small morally, because I don't know. Taking the officeholding issue of the fourth and fifth generations some of the characteristics are very obvious.

Speaking now of the male, one finds him stunted, a feather-weight physically, very narrow between the eyes and of about the force of character of a potato. The hat of the male Washingtonian—always, of course, referring to those native—reaches its maximum at six and seven-eighths. The average is six and three-eighths. I received these figures from a local dealer in headwear, who wept as he announced them. The horizon of these gentry is also six and seven-eighths. They view the world, as Carlysle said, from the parish belfry.

The female Washingtonian I have ever viewed from afar and know mighty little about. Outwardly she is tall gaunt, weird with a jolty staccato walk, full of rest and grace notes, disclosing a plain, clear strain of step-ladder in her blood. She is two feet taller than the male of her species and seems built with a thoughtful eye to the matter of freshets and high water. One can always mark the male and female Washingtonian when one meets them strolling about their native wilds by virtue of this two feet towering difference in her favor.

Then again, as he trots patiently and pantingly—for he is very shy on breath—by her side he takes two steps to her one. She swings along, bar the clothes, bar action, I have noted in pretty fair shape; he trots. The native Washingtonians talk but little. They are by no means geysers, neither mentally nor in conversational sense. There isn't much scenery in their minds, so they haven't much to show you. The truth is, they simply live, dream of and die in office, and that is all there is in their pin-head existences.

Kitty Winslow—How can you expect me to believe you when you lie there and make love to me with your cap pulled over your face in that rowdy way?

Tom DeWitt—I want to keep this blinding glare out of my eyes. Is that better?

Van Pelt—What did he say?

Wool—Didn't care whether it would or not; they are going to Kentucky to live.—New York Herald.

WAKE UP.

If you wake up in the morning with a bitter or bad taste in your mouth, Languor, Dull Headache, Despondency, Constipation, take Simmons Liver Regulator. It corrects the bilious stomach, sweetens the breath and cleanses the furred tongue. Children as well as adults sometimes eat something that does not digest well, producing Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Restlessness, or Sleeplessness—a good dose of Regulator will give relief. So perfectly harmless is this remedy that it can be taken by the youngest infant or the most delicate person without injury, no matter what the condition of the system may be. It can do no harm if it does no good, but its reputation for 40 years proves it never fails in doing good.

AN AWFUL DILEMMA.

Prometheus, upon his rock secure,
A vulture preying on his vital part,
Endured no agony as I endure,
With cruel serpents tearing at my heart.

By day or night in vain I seek for peace,
In vain I strive to tear the evil out;
But still the torments in my soul increase,
By indecision nourished, and by doubt.

And all because young Cupid, worst of churls,
Has aimed his poisoned arrows at my breast—
For I have met three wondrous pretty girls,
And know not which of them I love the best.

A MICHIGAN FARMER

Killed by a Lake Shore Passenger Train.

Mr. Basil LaPointe, a farmer living near Vienna, Mich., was killed by a Lake Shore passenger train last night. Mr. La Pointe came to Toledo yesterday afternoon with a load of hay and the fatal accident occurred as he was on his way home, at the Cherry street crossing, West Toledo. It seems two teams were ahead of his, crossing the track and a bend in the road prevented him from seeing the approaching train. The wagon was smashed to atoms and both horses killed. Mr. La Pointe lived but a few minutes. His skull was crushed, his face badly cut and bruised, and one arm and leg broken. The coroner was called and viewed the remains and the body was removed to the Lake Shore depot at West Toledo. His brothers were notified and were expected to arrive this afternoon.

ORDER OF RED CROSS

Is Flourishing in Toledo—Notes.

Grand Scribe Sheeler has been employed by the grand trustees to engage in organizing new commanderies during the present year.

Grand Commander Cowgill is energetically pushing the order in Ohio.

The committee on revision of the supreme commandery constitution will meet June 15, to engage in the work and report to the supreme body which meets in Toledo July 12.

Three deaths have been reported since call for assessment No. 41. One of these will probably be paid from surplus.

The reports from Illinois and Minnesota are exceedingly encouraging.

At present Ohio has a larger membership than any other grand commandery, but Illinois is coming to the front at a rapid pace.

The grand commandery of Ontario, which recently held a meeting, voted a liberal appropriation for advancing the order.

THE UNION OF UNIONS

Elect Officers and Transact Other Important Business.

The Union of Unions held their regular monthly meeting with Ross W. C. T. U. at the A. M. E. church, on Erie street, Thursday afternoon, the president, Mrs. Louise Eck, presiding. Mrs. Affie Hitchens, secretary. After devotional exercises Dr. Bolles, who was present, explained the "gold cure" system and his method of treating persons addicted to drink.

The election of officers for the ensuing six months was next in order and resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Louise Eck; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Judge Bentley; financial secretary, Mrs. Nicholas; treasurer, Mrs. Quinn.

The report of committees was next received. The committee appointed to visit the police matron had not done so; the committee was re-appointed and instructed to make an effort to see the matron. The committee on drinking fountains was also requested to endeavor to have this matter attended to at once, as the warm days have come and drinking fountains in all parts of the city are absolute necessities.

Mrs. Fredericks, of Lincoln union, superintendent of foreign work, then addressed the union on her work, which she deems one of the most important branches of W. C. T. U. work, and made an earnest appeal to every union in Toledo to appoint a superintendent of foreign work from their unions, and make the appointee a woman, who will realize the importance of the work and do it. Her address drew out considerable discussion, but her plan of work was considered a good one, and it was decided to adopt it and appoint a superintendent of foreign work in each union in Toledo.

The meeting then adjourned to meet with Lincoln W. C. T. U. in Millers' hall, Langdon street, Thursday, July 7.

IN LABOR CIRCLES.

Permanent Headquarters is Being Discussed.

As stated in the Bee some time ago, the project of a "home" for labor organizations is being agitated in Toledo labor circles. There seems to be no reason why such a place should not be secured. It would greatly facilitate the work of the labor leaders, and everyone interested in labor organizations hope that it will be a go.

At the meeting of the Central Labor union last evening the matter was discussed, and it was reported that the Central Labor union looks favorably upon the project. The unions of the city will each appoint committees to make a canvass and ascertain what the general feeling is, and what amount of stock each union will take. It can then be determined whether it will be advisable to go ahead and build, or secure a building. One union last night proposed taking $420 worth of stock.

Delegates were admitted last night as follows: Machinists' union, No. 105, Wm. Meyers; Metal Polishers, A. McCafferty; Barbers, A. M. Garside and Mr. Van Devere; Blacksmiths, Albert Pawlish; Electric Wageworkers, John E. Devlin.

The committee on city ordinance reported that there was an ordinance for keeping the markets open until 11 a. m. daily, but the city officials did not or could not enforce it.

Messrs. Voit, Salkell and Carr were appointed to confer with a committee of five from the Painters and Decorators' union and devise ways and means for securing the national headquarters for painters and decorators for Toledo.

The various unions were asked to consider the questions of observing Labor Day and report to the central body.

Delegates from the Cigarmakers' union reported that a Detroit firm have been issuing a fraudulent cigarmakers' label, and that steps will be taken to prosecute the firm, as there is a state law in Michigan against such fraud.

This is the regular meeting night of the plasterers at Mulcahey's hall; woodworkers, at Carpenters' hall; lathers, at Union hall; Joan of Arc, at Clarke's hall.

MAGNIFICENT BUILDING

To be Erected by Isaac D. Smead & Co.

At the World's Fair—Plans Prepared and Arrangements Made for an Unique Structure.

Isaac D. Smead & Co. have on exhibition at their office on Huron street the plans for a magnificent structure to be erected at Chicago for the World's fair.

The building, which promises to be one of the handsomest on the grounds, will be raised on huge pillars and will be reached by a long and artistic flight of stairs. The structure will represent a school room with the Smead heating and ventilating system in full operation.

To the right of this suspended structure will be a series of exhibits representing the branch houses of the company—New York, Chicago, Toledo, Kansas City, Philadelphia, Toronto, etc.

Under and all around the building will be beautifully laid out walks, bordered by green lawns.

Speaking of his plans to a Bee this morning Col. Smead said:

"Our various companies decided to make an exhibit and asked me to prepare plans. Each house will contribute its share to the cost of erecting and operating the exhibit. I had some trouble in getting the necessary space. I told them ours was the greatest works of the kind in the world, and if they didn't give me the room I required I would not exhibit at all. Then our ex-secretary of state, Dan Ryan, took a hand and saw that I got what I wanted. I just want to say to you Dan Ryan is a fine gentleman and the best representative Ohio could have selected."

The Smead exhibit at Chicago will be one that Toledo visitors to the World's fair will have reason to feel proud of and to show their visiting friends.

From our duty to our customers, consequently the clothing we sell never shrinks on our customers. We prefer to leave a man enough room to laugh in his sleeve if he wants to, and as we wish our customers to grow more we would not sell them clothing that grows less. The best material, therefore, is put in our garment. They are made in the best fashions by the best workmen, and if we don't ask the best prices for them it is because we are more anxious for customers than money. We are offering a special reduction on Summer Overcoats of 20 per cent. Our Straw Hat sale is still drawing the crowds, and we still lead in 25 and 50 cent neckwear.

THE BEE AT MINNEAPOLIS.

The hundreds of republicans in Toledo and northwestern Ohio who will attend the national republican convention in Minneapolis will be glad to know that their favorite paper for news, the Bee, will be on sale during the convention. Copies may be obtained at the news stand in the New York Life Insurance Company building, which will also be general press headquarters. The Bee will be a lively buzzer next week.

The True Tale of Tin.

The Louisville Courier-Journal takes the latest reports on the tin business and the existing law and draws some conclusions which incite one to look into the matter. After July 1, 1893, metallic tin will bear a tax of 4 cents a pound. This is not for revenue, but to protect, or, in better terms, stimulate the manufacture of tin in this country. Or, to be still more explicit, this special duty is to protect our tin mines. According to official report the Temescal mine of California is the only one in the country that is producing ore in commercial quantities. This is owned by an English company which says, in a prospectus, that it can produce tin here at less cost than anywhere else in the world. It makes its own wage scale and takes its laborers from the world's markets, and facilities are all in favor of this country.

The Chicago Tribune learns from a correspondent in that region that the Temescal mine is equal to a product of 240 tons annually. Our imports of tin in the last fiscal year were nearly 18,000 tons, not including that used for the manufacture of tin plate. The Temescal tin is not suitable for tin plate, such as Mr. McKinley's tea-pot and badge are made of. That is imported tin, dipped in this country, a process which Senator Sherman told an Ohio audience could be successfully performed by girls and boys without previous training. So, really, on purely republican authority—the Chicago Tribune and Senator Sherman—the tinware that is rattled for campaign purposes stands for nothing except imported goods that got in ahead of the law or paid the penalty for getting in after the law took effect.

A raise of 4 cents a pound on metallic tin means an import tax of $1,600,000, as no one will pretend to say that the 240 tons will have any perceptible effect on the amount consumed. This goes into the treasury, where it is not needed, for revenue. Importers charge it up to wholesalers, wholesalers to retailers, and retailers to consumers.

The 240 tons, mined by an English company, are protected by a tax of $1,600,000, nearly $7,000 protection for each ton of product! There is no dodging these facts and conclusions. As the Courier-Journal puts it: "it costs the people fifteen times the value of the tin to protect it." Is this good business sense? If the Temescal company's printed testimony—that its manufacture costs less here than anywhere else in the world, for reasons named—is reliable, why is this tax benefit necessary? Is it just to compel men who are struggling along in business outside the pale of favoritism, to pay tribute for this costly experiment, instituted by one-idea individuals, temporarily in power?

What of the Mugwump?

Harper's Weekly is the leading mugwump organ in the United States. In a recent issue it considers the independent voters of New York and their prospective action. Its first proposition is: the independent journal, like the independent individual, must look at the situation as it is, not as he may wish it to be. In New York the independent vote is really independent, and while it cannot, for obvious reasons, be cast for its ideal candidate, it must go to the one who approaches the nearest to that standard. The importance of this vote is emphasized by the supposition that it holds the balance of power in the state and on the state's vote depends the election of president. In '84 and '88, it was largely cast for the democratic candidate for president and the republican candidate for governor. In 1891 it was divided. The mugwump code of principles is tersely summed up:

Civil service reform, an honest currency, tariff reform (in a revenue, and not a protection sense), and honest elections. But they do not generally favor a force bill, because they do not believe that it would protect those whom it is designed to protect, but would merely exasperate the situation, which no law can control.

Having thus premised the situation, the Weekly proceeds to say:

Cleveland is the only conspicuous representative; and as his views are convictions, and as such voters believe in his courage and tenacity, should he be nominated, he would have their support.

But, Mr. Curtis cannot see clearly Mr. Cleveland's way to the nomination. He understands the full significance of the democratic schism in his state, and the stumbling block which can neither be gotten over nor around is the fact that—

The Chicago convention will hesitate to stigmatize the unanimous regular action of the party in New York as fraudulent, because it is the regular action of the party organization which Mr. Cleveland and his friends three months before urgently supported.

This is an honest view of the situation "as it appears to independent eyes entirely friendly to Mr. Cleveland." The only hope they see for him is in "a freshet that shall sweep all before it and make him the candidate by acclamation." And so the mugwump is in the boat with other politicians: he doesn't quite know what he will do.

Rev. Sandy Washington, a Baptist minister of St. Paul, Minn., who went a year ago, to do missionary work in Liberia, is back in New York, sick, destitute and discouraged. American negroes, in Liberia, he says, puff out their chests and strut about proclaiming their superiority—compelling their more ignorant brother to become slaves to them." He finds the natives "more interested in the rum which is shipped there from Boston and London than they are in the existence and care of a Divine Being." It is only in the democratic states of North America, that the negro is a persecuted saint.

A large deficiency in the corn crop will give us an aristocratic price on porkers next fall.—Republican Organ.

This from a high protection sheet, is admission that the law of supply and demand governs prices for farm products, and the tax law has no bearing whatever in the case. The protected trusts will go on regulating prices for their goods and controling the "home market" and the unprotected pork raiser will go on paying protection prices for his carpets, blankets, iron and tin ware; and some of them will go to the polls in November and vote for a continuance of this kind of assistance to agriculture.

Secretary Elkins tells a Mail and Express man that "the fight is over and the contest settled." He is going to his West Virginia country estates, and not to Minneapolis. Said he:

I have just had a talk with Mr. Blaine and while I am not at liberty at this time to reveal the words, I can say the intent is that Mr. Blaine would not accept the nomination if tendered to him, and therefore he will not be nominated. He is positively not a presidential possibility.

Strange that such positive assurance from such a source has no perceptible effect on the hustlers.

It is singular that with all the sympathy republican newspapers express for the negro, that he is being lynched now and then, here and there, by mobs of both whites and blacks for the ravishing and murder of white women and children, no word of sympathy is uttered for the victims of the brutes in human shape, and no word of censure or warning given the black devils. The best admonishings have come from respectable colored men. This is very dangerous stuff to handle for campaign material.

The best tactics yet are to hold Mr. Blaine strictly to responsibility for his uncontradicted letter of declination and accuse him of treachery to his party if he shall have designs of which he declines to speak. The apprehension is that the dagger for Harrison may be under the Blaine cloak, and he is simply hiding it till other hands are ready to give the thrust. It is not entirely pro-Blaine, but it is wholly anti-Harrison.

"A personal grievance combine" is what a New York organ calls the anti-Harrison crowd. The personal obnoxiousness of the president must be something terrible; what can it all be about? The charge gives Blaine republicans an excellent character for political high-mindedness! It will hardly mollify the "combine" to be thus accused. Rather will it urge them on to demonstrate to the accusers the full significance of the grievances.

One of the few things to be said for Mr. Harrison is that Quay, Clarkson, Dudley and Platt are all for the other fellow. Mr. Harrison has done all he could, however, in recognition of their peculiar methods, and that they want to try a new pull is not strange. There isn't much credit involved, after all, when things come to pass in spite of a man, instead of by his consent and approval.

The appropriation bill hangs fire in the house with its senate amendments, and the senate chamber is deserted. The republican legislators are all going to Minneapolis to labor for their party and themselves at the expense of the dear people, who suffer from neglect of business and who pay the salaries of these gentlemen.

The men who know all about the Blaine-Harrison contest, just what it amounts to and just how it will end, are as thick as toads after a shower, which is pretty thick these days. These things being true why doesn't the rumpus cease? Why do the knowing ones keep on answering the "empty fusilade?"

There's Mr. Blaine's letter to be sure, but then, there the picture taken at Sarony's the other day. The Damrosch baby is too young to call for that.

There's a distinction between fame and notoriety. Toledo's mayor who would have base ball on Sundays to win men away from saloons, and New York's clergyman who would have the church reform the saloons and the city government license disreputable houses, may not gain the one but are pretty sure of the other.

It is recalled that, at Harrison's inauguration ceremonies, Mrs. Blaine considered herself shabbily treated—snubbed, in fact. Now she has the satisfaction of seeing it said, in print, that Harrison will be defeated by a woman—that woman, Mrs. Blaine, who assures the secretary on the one hand, and the public on the other, that he is able to make the race.

Secretary Noble had planned to go to Minneapolis, but the president thinks, for obvious reasons, he would better not. A great many small officers do not signify so much as one member of the cabinet.

CURRENT COMMENT.

How happy Mr. Gladstone is in epithets! "A political incendiary" describes exactly his great antagonist, Lord Salisbury.—New York Recorder.

The mayor of Toledo favors Sunday base ball because it has a tendency to keep men away from the saloons. His pastor should tell him that open drinking places are not a necessity of a Christian Sabbath.—Philadelphia Times.

It is calculated that it will cost $70,000 to put the capitol in Washington in good sanitary condition. Now that the plumbers are going to get their hands into the treasury, the country may as well get resigned to a deficit.—Boston Herald.

No open attack could injure Harrison's self-esteem half so much as the slur upon his characteristics, which is embodied in the mad republican rush to "boom" an absolute invalid for president rather than renominate the Indianian.—Boston Globe.

That world's fair Sunday-closing petition bearing about $60,000 names would carry more weight if there could be some way of determining how many of the signers knew what they were signing and how many cared anything about the matter at issue.—Chicago Mail.

President Eliot of Harvard college has made a speech reflecting upon the common school system of America. That is not at all surprising as coming from a man who apologizes for polygamy and who talks about the "waves of uniformed opinion in the west."—Kansas City Star.

Mr. Platt is a politician of great experience and audacity, but sober citizens would attach more weight to his utterances were it not for a general suspicion that he has discovered that Benjamin Harrison is disposed to be president not only in name, but in fact.—Boston Journal.

A few more "hospitable gatherings" of leading republicans known to be opposed to the nomination of President Harrison and the deed will be done. It will take, from present indications, the combined work of all the office holders to keep the delegates in line for the president, even if they can by hard work do this. It is an open secret that the Southern delegates will desert his cause upon the first opportunity.—Nashville American.

This agitation for Blaine, if it is kept up, will accomplish one of two things, either nominate him or else leave the nomination to Gen. Harrison in such shape that it will not come the most grateful way of receiving it. Of all the poor politics which we ever have seen, it is the worst to get up this apparent Blaine-Harrison fight at the eleventh hour, when, three months ago, by the utterance of a word, the affair would have been adjusted without leaving a trace of bitterness anywhere.—Boston Record.

Lord Wolseley's affirmation that a small army will be sufficient to protect England from invasion must be based on expectation that the home rule bill of the next parliament will promptly become law. It is necessary now to keep 30,000 armed men in one part of the United Kingdom to maintain "loyalty." In case of attempted invasion this contingent, instead of being withdrawn, would have to be doubled to prevent insurrection. Bayonets are not the wisest means of keeping domestic peace in modern times. —Chicago Herald.

AN IMMENSE DEAL.

The Pennsylvania Officials Buy More Dock Property.

Giving This Company a Dockage of 3,334 Feet,

Which Will be Improved for the Coal and Iron Ore Trade—$40,000 Changed Hands.

When a railroad company determines upon some gigantic improvement very few people get on the inside of the movements.

For two years the Pennsylvania Railroad company has been acquiring river front property and with no apparent object in view, other than to be in possession of the property in case of an emergency.

It develops now that these negotiations, covering a period of two years, have been steps leading to the consummation of an improvement of immense value to Toledo interests.

To-day a deal was closed whereby the Pennsylvania company comes into possession of 384 feet of river front, for which $40,000 in cash was paid.

The property extends from lot 72 to lot 78 Stickney Avenue addition, which includes all of the river front from the middle of the block between Ash and Buckeye streets to the old city line, where it connects with the Ann Arbor property.

The deal was negotiated by Seagrave Bros. for the following named owners: Fred Shoemaker, Toledo, 20 feet; Truman Percy, Watertown, Conn., 60 feet; R. and J. Taft, Uxbridge, Mass., 60 feet; J. Corbusier, Noah C. Whitney, Toledo, 72 feet; estate Hosea T. Stock, 29 feet; Hannah E. Bashure, Toledo, 43 feet.

This purchase now gives the Pennsylvania company an unbroken dockage of 3,334 feet.

It is needless to say that this property will be improved. Railroad companies do not invest thousands of dollars in dead issues. Of late years Ohio and Michigan have become prominently identified with the coal and iron ore trade. Michigan produces the iron, Ohio the coal, and Toledo is the link that connects these industries of the two states.

The Pennsylvania company has completed a line into the heart of the coal districts of Ohio. It is now prepared to place the coal in Toledo. The next step is dock facilities to transfer the coal to boats and transport it to Michigan and receive iron ore in return.

This is undoubtedly what the close of the present deal means. It comes from good authority that the company has plans completed to construct 1,800 feet of dockage, which will be equipped in the latest and most improved manner for the handling of coal and ore, which will, when completed, cost over a million of dollars.

BUSINESS LOT SOLD.

St. Clair Street Property on the Move.

John T. Newton Buys the Luce Interest in Thirty Feet.

A deal was closed to-day by which John T. Newton comes into possession of all the property between the Bee building and the old roller skating rink, adjoining the St Clair Building, on which excavation is in progress for a splendid business block.

Mr Newton recently purchased 30 feet adjoining the Bee building and owned an undivided one-half of the other. The sale closed to-day involves the remaining 15 feet, which was purchased by Mr. Newton from the Luce estate, for $375 per foot front, amounting to $5,625.

REFORMED PRESBYTERIANS.

Proceedings of the Synod at Mansfield.

Mansfield, O., June 3.—All the delegates to the National Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian church are now in attendance, and the Synod began its active work of the session. Over 200 delegates are in attendance, and almost every section of the United States is represented as well as the Reformed Presbyterian church of Ireland.

Reports from the western section of the alliance of reformed churches show a tendency toward closer relationship among the Presbyterian churches which emphasize reformed principles.

The report of the finance committee shows increased beneficences. Encouraging reports are made from the mission stations in the Indian territory, the Chinese station at Oakland, Cal., and other western points, as also from the south and from the foreign stations, including one recently established in the New Hebrides.

The board of foreign missions reports great opposition to the work from the Sultan. A mission in China is recommended. The committee on revision of the Psalms is instructed to continue its work and produce and keep on hand an abundant supply.

A petition was received from the Woman's Suffrage association asking the synod to recommend that suffrage be extended to women.

The spirit of the synod is still strong against any concessions to liberalism and the defections in the church and in the theological seminaries and colleges have been filled in some cases by ministers or professors from other denominations.

October 10—Parade of college students during the day and in the evening the first performance of S. G. Pratt's cantata, "The Triumph of Columbus."

October 11—Naval parade during the day; concert in the evening.

GOOD HAUL BY BURGLARS.

Lima, O., June 3.—The farmhouse of David Harsh, east of town, was entered by burglars last night. J. W. Hall occupies part of the house. The burglars took $350 from Hall's sleeping room and $900 from Harsh's room, and then made their escape without arousing any one. Two hundred dollars reward is offered but there is no clue to work on.

UNDER THE WHEELS.

Celina, O., June 3.—Charles Fickle, a farmer living west of this city, met with a fatal accident Thursday evening, while endeavoring to ride to his home. He boarded a L. E. and W. train, and when jumping from it fell back under the wheels, cutting his leg off at the thigh and otherwise injuring him. He cannot recover.

SMALLPOX IN OHIO.

Columbus, O., June 3. — Secretary Probst, of the state board of health, has been summoned to Pomeroy by the announcement of 16 cases of smallpox. Gallipolis and Cincinnati seem very much worried over the reports. The origin of the disease has been traced to the first victim, a boy who came from New York on a visit.

FOUND DEAD IN THE WOODS.

Celina, O., June 3.—Henry Renk, a well-to-do and well-known farmer of Franklin township, of this county, left his home yesterday on a hunting expedition. This morning he was found in the woods near his home dead. His death is attributed to being struck by lightning.

WITH GREAT SUCCESS

The Opera Season Has Opened in Chicago.

Chicago, June 3.—With an audience that crowded every foot of sitting or standing space from main floor to top gallery, and with over 2,000 people unable to gain admission, the Chicago opera house last night inaugurated its sixth extravaganza season. The production proved more brilliant than even its famous predecessors, the Arabian Nights, Crystal Slipper and Sinbad. The extravaganza deals with the love affairs of Ali Baba, a poor woodcutter of Bagdad, and Morgiana, his slave.

Ali Baba, in order to win the heart of Morgiana, who has been seized by the caliph of Bagdad, undertakes to discover the cave of the two-score Oriental robbers whose depredations have made existence in Bagdad burdensome.

Around this story the extravaganza is woven. Many old favorites are seen in the cast, including Ida Mulle, Ada Deaves, Bessie Cleveland, Babbette Rodney; the premieres Hulda Irmler, Madeline Morando and Martha Irmler; Arthur Dunn, Dan Hart, Henry Norman and Alfred C. Wheelan. The scenic effects surpass anything ever seen in this country, and the enchanted forest of falling water, the Caliph's palace, and the birth of the butterfly, the latter a brilliant transformation scene, created a furor.

The entire production made a pronounced hit. In the boxes and audience were a large number of visiting world's fair commissioners, including envoys from several foreign countries, and a large number of prominent republicans en route to Minneapolis.

NEW TRUSTEE APPOINTED.

Wooster, O., June 3.—Colonel C. V. Hurd, cashier of the Wooster National bank, has been appointed by Judges Dowell and Nicholas as a trustee of the Wooster and Lodi railway, vice Jacob Frick, resigned.

A NEW RICHMOND.

Pennoyer a Candidate for the Presidency.

Alliance People Claim He Is a Strong Candidate and the Second Choice of Many.

Washington, D. C., June 3.—Gov. Pennoyer of Oregon is the latest individual to be seriously talked of in connection with the presidential nomination of the people's party, and his name is regarded as second choice by many of those who would like to see Judge Gresham at the head of the ticket.

Gov. Pennoyer, who has strong labor and Granger affiliations, was elected in 1890 as a democrat by a majority of 5,133, although two years before Harrison carried the state by a plurality of nearly 7,000.

Gen. James A. Weaver, of Iowa, himself at one time a candidate for the presidency, and who is one of the leading lights in the new party, recently went to Portland, Oregon, and had several conferences with Gov. Pennoyer, and advices received by Farmers' Alliance men here indicate that Weaver has a conditional promise from the governor that the use of his name in the convention will be permitted, subject to certain contingencies, the exact nature of which is not yet known.

The leaders of the alliance are doing a good deal of quiet figuring and calculating in anticipation of the Omaha convention, and reports are received daily from states in which the people's party, in some one or other of its forms, has secured a foothold.

From the present tenor of their advices they are sanguine of securing a good proportion, if not all, of the electoral votes of Georgia and South Carolina. The latter state they regard as already theirs inasmuch as the democratic organization has surrendered to the alliance. They also believe that they will get a part of the electoral vote of Minnesota, some of that of Wisconsin, and the entire vote of Oregon.

In the event of these calculations proving to be well founded the election would be thrown into the house of representatives, and under the constitution the selection of a president would have to be made from the three highest candidates.

It is regarded as possible that the free-silver democrats will support Pennoyer in preference to Cleveland, should the latter be the democratic nominee, but, however this might be, it is believed that the free-silver republicans in the senate could be induced to elect Col. L. L. Polk, the southern alliance president, as vice-president. These are the views, cautiously expressed, of some of the men who will practically mould the Omaha convention to their own ideas.

HELD UP THE STAGE.

The Treasure Box Stolen, but Passengers Not Harmed.

Billings, Mont., June 3.—The Billings and Great Falls stage was held up by masked men yesterday and the treasure box and mail sacks taken after one horse was shot.

The passengers were not molested and were allowed to proceed with the remaining horse. The robbery occurred on Painted Rope Hill, nine miles south of the Muscle Shell river.

A sheriff's posse was dispatched from Billings on the arrival of the coach last evening.

LIGHTNING ON A LARK.

Pennsylvania Visited by a Severe Storm.

Three Children Killed and Much Damage Done to Farm Property.

Scranton, Pa., June 3.—A terrific thunderstorm played havoc throughout Lackawanna county last night.

It began in the early evening and continued until 3 o'clock this morning. Three boys and one girl were struck by lightning. Two were killed and the others fatally injured.

When the storm first came up two Polish boys, Joseph and Casmir Choniczky, were caught beneath a large oak tree in South Scranton. Casmir was part of the way up the tree, while Joseph was standing underneath when the lightning struck. Joseph was instantly killed and Casmir was set on fire by the electric fluid. He caught one of the limbs of the tree and was frightfully burned before aid could reach him. He died this morning.

In the Hyde Park section a 3-year-old son of Sylvester Arnold was struck and his injuries are regarded fatal.

At Elmhurst, seven miles east of this city, a girl named Andrews, while seeking shelter under a tree was killed by a thunderbolt.

Heavy landslides occurred on the Delaware & Hudson and the Ontario & Western roads, which delayed trains until this morning.

MUST PAY UP.

Canton, O., June 3.—The jury in the case of Grace Sowers, guardian, against the People's Mutual Accident Insurance company, to-day rendered a verdict for $3,390. The father of the plaintiff carried an accident policy in the company, and was killed in a runaway near Louisville. Payment was refused by the company, it being claimed death came from carelessness and intoxication. The verdict is for the policy and interest.

ELECTRIC RAILWAY FOR DELAWARE.

Delaware, June 3.—Delaware is assured of an electric street railway. A company has been incorporated with a capital stock of $60,000. Work will begin at once, and will be pushed with the intention of completing the road by the first of September. The road will be about four miles in length, running between the colleges and the depots to Greenwood lake and Oak Grove cemeteries.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Celina, O., June 3.—The preliminary hearing in the Benjamin murder case, before Mayor Gable, resulted in the three prisoners being bound over to await the action of the grand jury, which convenes next Monday. The men are charged with murder in the first degree.

KILLED BY WHISKY AND SNUFF.

Cadiz, O., June 3.—William Thomas, colored, aged 12 years, was found dead last night. The boy drank some liquor and then used some snuff, his death being caused by the double dose.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

Sandusky, O., June 3.—During a terrific hail and thunder storm yesterday the 16-year-old son of August Valtzen, a farmer near here, was struck by lightning and instantly killed.

The men met yesterday and hot words ensued whereupon Taylor shot Foster dead. Mrs. Taylor, seeing the crime committed, fled to Foster's house for protection but her husband followed her there and shot her dead. Taylor then shot and killed himself. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor leave four children. Foster was unmarried and kept house with his mother.

INTO A LANDSLIDE.

A Bad Disaster, But No Lives Lost.

Franklin, Pa., June 3.—A passenger train on the Allegheny Valley railroad, due here at 6:20 last evening, ran into a landslide eight miles below this city and the engine and two baggage cars were thrown into the river.

Fortunately the passenger coaches remained on the track and a terrible accident was averted. Alexander Reed, the engineer, was fatally injured, and the express messenger had both legs broken. Three other employes were slightly injured.

TWIST YE, TWINE YE.

Twist ye, twine ye; even so
Mingle shades of Joy and Woe,
Hope and Fear, and Peace and Strife
In the thread of human life.

While the mystic twist is spinning,
And the infant's life beginning,
Dimly seen through twilight bending,
Lo! what varied shapes attending!

Passion's force, by Patience knit;
Doubtful Reason reined by Wit;
Toil, forgot in sighing Rest,
Joy, we know not which is best.

Earnest Gladness, idle Fretting,
Foolish Memory, wise Forgetting;
And trusted reeds, that broken lie,
Wreathed again for melody.

Ah! the deep, the tender playing,
Worded Silence, unmeant Saying;
Ah! sweet Anger, insincere,
Trembling Kiss, and glittering Tear.

Vanished Truth, but Vision staying;
Fairy riches—lost in weighing.
And fitful grasp of flying Fate,
Touched too lightly, traced too late.

Graceful Pride, and timid Praise,
Love diffused a thousand ways;
Faithful Hope, and generous Fear,
In the mystic dance appear.

Now they wax and now they dwindle,
Whirling with the whirling spindle;
Twist ye, twine ye, even so
Mingle human bliss and woe.

One definition of genius is the faculty of imagining and using facts which are yet to be. So Dickens, in "Dombey & Son," describes an old lady as dying of a complication of diseases, delineating, accurately, the effect of each and all on her system. When the book came out the medical men of London said such a complication of diseases did not and could not exist. But it has since been discovered to be a reality, and had Dickens been a medical man of the highest intelligence his diagnosis could not have been better.

MR. STEIN'S BURGLARS.

"Well, sir," said Inspector Burleigh of the Criminal Investigation department, to Mr. Stein, the well-known diamond merchant, "if you are nervous about the safety of your valuables the best thing you can do is to act upon the following advice: As to the strong room at your office, keep on your watch chain a bunch of dummy keys for ornament, so to speak, and deposit the true keys at your banker's every afternoon, put a good safe in your study at home; but any diamonds you may take to that house may be kept in a dummy champagne bottle in your cellar there; get a secret electric alarm-push designed and fixed in your private residence and another at your office—both of them communicating with the nearest police station; and lastly, never on any account take a revolver about with you—or you're a dead man before you get it out further than the flap of your pocket."

Mr. Stein thanked the detective and promised to act upon his advice in every particular.

The circumstances which gave rise to this conversation were these: Mr. Stein, a diamond merchant of high standing, was expecting the arrival of a large parcel of valuable cut gems from Amsterdam. He had been warned by the authorities at Scotland Yard, that his precautions against being robbed were absurdly inadequate. No man in his senses would allow it to become notorious that he often carried parcels of valuable gems on his person, and sometimes merely locked them up in a trumpery little old-fashioned safe in his study of his villa at Norwood—a house standing alone in its grounds, and at a considerable distance from the nearest police station—a home shared with him by no one but an old housekeeper.

Mr. Stein concluded, after awhile, that these remonstrances were not altogether idle, and he therefore consulted the best authority upon the subject—namely, Inspector Burleigh, whose advice opens this story.

"If you make a sound I'll shoot."

Such was the unpleasant intimation that fell upon Mr. Stein's ears as he awoke one night from his beauty sleep.

It was a stormy winter night, and the rain beat spitefully upon the window panes. Mr. Stein might have shouted himself hoarse and no one could possibly have heard him. His housekeeper was absent, having been called to the sick-bed of a relative.

Mr. Stein tried to realize the situation, as quickly as his sleepy senses would permit. He could see very little around him, but he was soon aware that the voice was that of a masked man, leaning over him, revolver in hand. A second man was examining the room rapidly, by the aid of a bull's eye lantern.

"We've got you fairly at last, eh, old Stein?"

"What do you want?" inquired the diamond merchant nervously.

"What do we want? That's good! Now look here, Stein; when you left your office this afternoon you went to the postoffice at Holborn, and you asked for a registered packet, and they handed you a fat parcel of diamonds. You put 'em in your breast pocket and come straight home. You've not been out since; so the diamonds aren't far off. So much for your little business."

"How on earth," gasped Mr. Stein, "do you know all this?"

"That's our little business! And now, if you please, where's the diamonds?"

"Gentlemen," replied Mr. Stein, "you have caught me very cleverly. You insist on having my diamonds or my life. I have no particular wish to die yet, and resistance on my part, I can see, would be perfectly useless. I will agree to help you; that is to say, I will engage to put you in possession of the packet you are in search of, which is carefully hidden, and of anything else of value which you may require in my house—upon one condition."

"Well, what is it?"

"My condition is that you promise to give me, and not take away, a miniature which is hanging in my safe. It is the portrait of my dear grandmother."

"Oh! is that all? You can keep the old lady. She'd only be in our way."

"Thank you. Then here is the key of the safe in my study; but you won't find anything there. Believe me, there is nothing in the safe, except the portrait of my grandmother."

"Now, you just come along, Stein," said the burglar in chief. "We'll soon see what's in the safe. And, mind—first sign of any nonsense, and I'll shoot—sure as my name is—"

Mr. Stein huddled on some clothes, and all three descended to the study. The safe was in front of them. The key was soon applied to the lock, and the safe was opened. As Mr. Stein had said, there was absolutely nothing whatever inside, except the miniature.

"I told you so!" said Mr. Stein reproachfully.

The two robbers cursed and swore. Bill took the miniature off the peg it occupied in the safe and put it in his pocket. Stein shouldn't have the portrait, he said, till he fulfilled his promise about the diamonds.

"I am quite ready to keep my promise," said Mr. Stein. "follow me and I will show you where the diamonds are."

Holding the candle before him, he led the way to the cellar. The cellar was unlocked and they all entered.

"Don't see any diamonds here," complained the chief villain. "Out with them, Stein, and look smart about it."

The merchant reached his hand out to the back of a bin and drew forth, apparently, a magnum of Moet & Chandon's imperial, sec.

"Here you are, gentlemen," he said, unscrewing the neck of the false bottle, and disclosing to their astonished gaze the packet of diamonds within. "Did I not promise?"

"Good business—eh, Bill? Stein, my boy, you're a trump! Are all the other magnums here champagne, or only diamonds?"

The merchant laughed. "There are no more diamonds," he said. "You can see for yourselves. But if you will bring up a magnum of champagne with you, we'll broach it to your good health."

The men agreed, and they took glasses out of the pantry on their way up.

"Haven't you a friend in the garden outside?" inquired Stein with a laugh. "Call him in; we may as well all drink together." And he opened the Moet and began pouring it out.

Bill went to the front door, and passed a signal to the accomplice watching without, who promptly joined the party and took his glassa, as invited. All the three more masks; they were safe from the chance of recognition. The magnum of champagne was soon disposed of, and Mr. Stein generously offered to "stand another." The offer, however, was refused.

"No, Stein, my boy! That little game won't do! We like your fiz, but we like your diamonds better!"

"Besides, we've got to tie you up," interposed Bill.

"Tie me up! What for?"

"Just a little precaution. Stein, only a bit o' rope round your wrists, and another bit around your ankles, and a handkerchief over your mouth. We're sorry to inconvenience you, but business is business." And they proceeded accordingly.

Having tied and gagged the unfortunate diamond merchant, they bade him good night and wished him luck in the future. They were on the point of departing when they observed that their victim was greatly distressed about something.

"Why, hang it all if we weren't going to take off his grandmother, after all. Bill, you thief, put it back!"

Bill did so, and Mr. Stein's distress came to an end.

"Good by, Stein!" They waved to him and went out.

The diamond merchant lay quietly on the floor of his study and strained his ears. He heard the thieves open the hall door gently and pass out. In another moment there was a cry and a scuffle.

Before a minute had elapsed the three thieves were led back into the room handcuffed and in charge of a strong body of police.

The miniature of Mr. Stein's grandmother had hung on the switch of an electric bell. When removed it released the switch and the alarm was instantly given in the police station, half a mile distant. Mr. Stein had successfully humored the thieves till the police surrounded the house. That was all.—The Forum.

AN UNDISPUTED TEST OF MERIT.

A medicine that has been a household remedy for over fifty years and used in that time by over 150,000,000 persons, must have great merit. Such a medicine is found in Brandreth's Pills. This fact demonstrates the value of these pills better than any statement of the proprietors. It will be observed that the dose required to cure is small. One or two pills taken every night for ten or twenty days will cure dyspepsia, costiveness, rheumatism, liver complaint, biliousness, or any disease arising from an impure state of the blood. Brandreth's Pills are purely vegetable, absolutely harmless, and safe to take at any time.

Sold in every drug and medicine store, either plain or sugar coated.

THE ALDERMEN

Complete Their Business in Adjourned Session.

Oil Pipe Line Ordinances Approved—Street Commissioner Bower to be Investigated—Gas Trustees, One Dollar Per Year—Other Matters.

The board of aldermen, which adjourned Monday out of respect for Dr. W. W. Jones, met last evening and finished its business. There was a goodly schedule and several important matters came up.

The natural gas ordinance continuing the present contract with the Northwestern company, was passed with very little discussion. Mr. Hodge moved to refer the ordinance back to the committee, but this was lost, and the vote on the ordinance was as follows: Ayes, Hall, Hartford, Hassenzahl, Huberich, Leroux and Pelter; noes, Graham, Hodge and Wolfman.

The two ordinances granting to the Paragon and Pluto oil companies rights to lay pipe lines fro fuel oil, were passed after an amendment had been made requiring them to construct and operate at least one mile of their lines on the west side of the river within six months.

Mr. Hartford opposed these ordinances and in moving to defer them back to the committees made a most eloquent speech, condemning the present system by which the streets are pratically controlled by various corporations, who use them and run them as they please. He wanted more protection for the citizens and opposed any more tearing up of streets unless ironclad provisions are made that will insure the people that the streets will not be damaged. His motion was not seconded, however.

When the resolution came up fixing the salary of the city natural gas trustees at $1 per year, Solicitor Read stated that this could not be done by resolution, but that an ordinance must be prepared. On this statement the matter was referred back to the committee. Later Mr. Read stated that he had been mistaken, and that a resolution was sufficient. The matter was then taken up again, and Mr. Hassenzahl moved as an amendment that the salary be fixed at $600 per year. This was lost, and the original resolution was adopted by a vote of 5 to 4, the democrats voting for it and the republicans against.

Mr. Hartford presented an ordinance to regulate the blowing of steam whistles within the city limits and it was passed.

The committee appointed Monday night presented the following resolutions on the death of Dr. Jones, and they were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, This board has with profound regret been advised of the death of Dr. William W. Jones.

Resolved, That we recognize the fact that in the death of Dr. Jones we lose a citizen who for many years took an active interest in the municipal affairs of the city of Toledo; who at all times had the best interests of the city at heart, and notwithstanding his many professional duties, found time to work well and faithfully for the city's good and advancement. By the death of Dr. Jones we lose an able official, a wise counselor and an honest, upright and conscientious citizen.

Resolved That this board tenders to the family of the deceased its sympathy and sorrow for the irreparable loss they have sustained.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered upon the journal of this board and that the city clerk transmit an engrossed copy of the same to the family of the deceased.

The matter of alleged irregularities in the street commissioner's department, mentioned in the Bee several days ago, was brought to the attention of the board by Alderman Graham, who introduced a resolution as follows:

Resolved, That the board of revision, composed of the mayor, city solicitor and president of the board of councilmen, together with the city auditor and president of the board of aldermen, constitute a committee to investigate the street commissioner's department.

The matter was referred to the board of revision.

Two ordinances recommended by the health board were passed, one providing that no vault shall be cleaned except between the hours of 11 p. m. and 5 a. m., the other that all births shall be reported to the health office within five days.

Considerable routine business was acted upon and the business from the lower board passed.

WOULD HAVE BEEN 84.

Beauvoir, June 3.—To-day is the anniversary of the birth of Jefferson Davis. He was born in Kentucky in 1808, and consequently had he lived he would have been 84 years of age to-day. In many parts of the south the anniversary of the birth of the ex-president of the confederacy was observed with quiet but appropriate ceremonies.

In this state, under a resolution passed by the last general assembly, the day is declared a legal holiday.

DEATH IN WATER.

The Millions of Dangers Water Contains and the Rapidity With Which They Increase—Don't Take Any Chances.

Few people have any idea how impure even the purest drinking water is. The very best water known is full of germs. They are the most prolific creatures of which we have any knowledge, for a single one may be the causative parent of more than sixteen million, five hundred thousand descendants in a day. They are also possessed of great vitality, for they can be carried great distances in water without losing their power of producing disease. They can be frozen or even boiled without being destroyed. They may be kept dried for years and yet when placed in a suitable medium will come to life and produce fermentation and decay. They are the great poducers of malaria, fever, grip and most serious diseases.

"But," you say, "what can be done to avoid them since they cannot be killed by boiling?" There is but one thing which will effectively destroy them and that is coming in contact with spirits. A small amount of pure spirits in the water will effectually kill them and destroy their evil effects, but it should be borne in mind that nothing but the purest and best spirits should be used for this purpose, and that nothing is equal to whiskey. Not the ordinary whiskies which are upon the market, but something far above them—something which is highly endorsed by the scientific world. Such a whiskey is Duffy's Pure Malt, which is, today, more popular than ever before in its history, and which is doing wonders to destroy the germs of every disease. There are hundreds of families that use it constantly in connection with their drinking water, both at the table and between meals. Beware of any druggist or grocer who seeks to offer you something he says is "just as good." Duffy's is the only pure medicinal whiskey upon the market.

IN PARLIAMENT.

Great Legislators Discussing the Prize Fight.

London, June 3.—In the house of commons Wilfred Lawson asked whether proceedings would be taken against the partakers in and abettors of the Jackson-Slavin fight.

The home secretary reported that he had recommended the public prosecutor to see if there was any material that would justify the prosecution of the manager of the fight, who had previously been cautioned that he would be held responsible for any breach of the law.

The police did not recommend the prosecution of the principals, as the prosecution instituted against Slavin and McAuliffe after their fight had ended in an acquittal. The prosecution, Mr. Matthews added, did not depend upon whether gloves had been used or not, as a prize fight might be fought with gloves. The contest had not occurred with the cognizance of the police.

Mr. William Mather asked whether the government had reason to believe that the commercial treaty with Spain, securing a continuance of the "most favored nation" treatment for British goods exported to Cuba, would be renewed, as the United States had already secured the advantage of the most favored nation treatment.

The parliamentary secretary of the foreign office replied that Spain was not willing to grant the most favored nation treatment to British goods, or to prolong the existing conventions.

LYNCHED IN NEW YORK.

Locality Does Not Seem to Bar Snap Trials.

Port Jervis, N. Y., June 3.—A crime, heinous and revolting in its nature, and characterized by the most extreme brutality, was perpetrated yesterday upon the person of Miss Lena McMahon, the daughter of a Mrs. John McMahon, of this village.

The crime was committed by a negro known as Bob Jackson.

Jackson fled, leaving his victim in an insensible condition, and with injuries which will probably prove fatal. A posse was organized and the brute was captured about nine miles from Port Jervis. On the way back to the village Jackson confessed the crime.

On his arrival at the lockup he was taken in hand by the mob. The village police endeavored to protect him, but their efforts were unavailing, and he was strung up to a neighboring tree.

METHODIST BISHOPS.

Bishop Ninde leaves Topeka and will reside at Detroit; Bishop Mallalieu goes from New Orleans to Buffalo; Bishop Fowler from San Francisco to Minneapolis; Bishop Vincent from Buffalo to Topeka, Ks., and Bishop Fitzgerald from Minneapolis to New Orleans. Bishop Goodsell will be at Ft. Worth for a time and then go to San Francisco.

Bellevue, O., June 3.—(Special)—Mr. David Kistler, a well-to-do farmer, and daughter, of Seneca county, were run over by the cars as they were crossing the Nickel Plate railway near Green Springs.

Mr. Kistler was killed and his daughter severely injured. One horse was also killed, and the buggy broken to pieces.

STAND BY YOUNG.

Washington Correspondents Vindicate the Executive.

Washington, June 3.—So far as the corps of Washington correspondents can do it, Mr. James R. Young has been acquitted of the flimsy charges upon which the senate dismissed him from his position as principal executive clerk.

Some time ago the press committee was requested to make an investigation and to report to the correspondents whether, in the opinion of the committee, the action of the senate was based upon evidence and whether Mr. Young's removal from office carrier with it any imputation as to his character or general fitness to associate with gentlemen.

To-day the committee made public its report and in it states "In prosecuting the inquiry as to whether the committee had jurisdiction in this case we were led to make informal inquiry concerning the published allegation that Mr. Young communicated to newspaper correspondents information about transactions in the senate while in executive session.

Every correspondent with whom we conferred unequivocally denied that such information had been received from Mr. Young, and this is the unanimous opinion and declaration of the correspondents.

"We have no hesitation, therefore, in declaring that, in our judgment, there was no foundation for such charges against Mr. Young, as are alluded to in the paper requesting an investigation by the committee."

COMMENCEMENT.

St. Marys, O., June 3.—(Special)—The eighteenth annual commencement of the St. Marys High school was held at City hall last night, there being an immense audience present. The graduates were Misses Ray Bamberger, Carrie Jay and Effie Lloyd, and they acquitted themselves in a highly creditable manner. The diplomas were presented by Will T. Mooney. To-night a banquet will be given at the Fountain hotel.

DRS. FRANCE AND OTTMAN, of New York, the well known and successful Specialists in Chronic Diseases and Diseases of the Eye and Ear, on account of their large practice in Ohio, have established the FRANCE MEDICAL INSTITUTE, where all forms of Chronic, Nervous and Private Diseases will be successfully treated on the most Scientific principles. YOUNG MEN—Who have become victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit, which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of exalted talent and brilliant intellect, may call with confidence.

DRS. FRANCE AND OTTMAN, after years of experience, have discovered the greatest cure known for weakness in the back and limbs, involuntary discharges, impotency, general debility, nervousness, langour, confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, timid ty, trembling, dimness of sight, or giddiness, diseases of the head, throat, nose, or skin, affections of the liver, lungs, stomach, or bowels—those terrible disorders arising from the solitary vice of youth—and secret practices, blighting their most radiant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage impossible. Take one candid thought before it is too late. A week or month may place your case beyond the reach of hope. Our method of treatment will speedily and permanently cure the most obstinate case, and absolutely restore perfect manhood.

TO MIDDLE-AGED MEN.—There are many from the age of 30 to 60 who are troubled with frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight burning or smarting sensation, weakening the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examination of the urinary deposits, a ropy sediment will be found, or the color will be a thin or milkish hue. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is a second stage of seminal weakness. We will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

RECEIPTS DECREASING.

The Bad Weather is Having Its Effect.

Higher Prices are Certain for Grain,

Which, in Turn, Means Higher Prices for Breadstuffs—The Markets of the World.

The receipts of wheat to-day at Minneapolis and Duluth are 363,671 bus and at five other western points 88,749 bus. The export clearances yesterday at four Atlantic ports were wheat 75,707 bus and flour to an aggregate of 310,000 bus. Exports of corn 142,504 bus and of oats 14,237 bus. English markets are stronger and in Liverpool higher for wheat and corn.

The Markets To-day.

Our receipts of wheat are now decreasing and must decrease so long as it rains every day and everywhere. The late movement hence was from interior houses. Reports from farmers indicate that they would not sell if they could, being disposed to wait until the growing crop gives better promise.

Chicago Wheat.

Chicago gives as one reason for the advance to-day, that Duluth wheat in New York is getting out of condition, and therefore Chicago spring will attract the buyer.

New York denies the story.

The failure of an important grain and flour house in Paris is announced.

Bradstreets report of the visible supply makes wheat east of the Rockies decreased 1, 168,000 bus. Pacific coast increased 10,000 bus. Corn increased 812,000 bus. Oats decreased 39,000 bus.

The wheat markets in this country have ruled very strong to-day, and there has been considerable excitement at times, especially at Chicago, where prices have been advanced more rapidly than at the seaboard.

The weather—the uncertainty concerning the crop—the advance in corn—the covering of short sales—the firmer English markets, all these were bullish factors and doubtless each had its influence. The outward movement was light, and for the week will not likely exceed that of last week, which was 1,400,000 less than previous week from both coasts.

The advance in wheat at Chicago during the forenoon has been about 2c, and about 1c in New York, on the basis of the July future.

Corn has also been very strong, very unsteady and very active. July corn reached 50 3-8, an advance of 1 3-4. It is not to be wondered at. Only about 70 per cent. of the area designed for corn has been planted, and of what is in the ground a large portion has not yet germinated. It is a discouraging outlook for the crop.

June corn advanced more than July. Oats are also climbing up and to-day are more than 1c higher west.

London and Liverpool markets are quoted as closing higher and send buying orders, but at limits too low for working.

In New York June wheat closed 5-8 and July 7-8 higher. June corn 2 3-8 and July 3 7-8 higher. June oats 1 1-8 up.

In Chicago June wheat closed 1 3-4 and July 1 5-8 up. June corn 3 1-4 and July 1 3-8 up. July oats 1 1-4 higher.

In Toledo.—The trading in wheat shows greatly increased activity, and a strong market. The business in July was much the longest. Prices have advanced with some little irregularity, and the highest mark was not maintained. June wheat closed 2 1-4c, July 1 7-8c and August 1 3-4c up. On the call July sold at 88 1-2. After the call June sold at 95c to 94 3-4c. July sold at 89c to 90 3-4c and closed at 90 1-8c bid; August sold at 86 5-8c to 88 1-2c and closed at 88 1-8c bid.

Cash wheat was in good demand; No. 2 soft sold at 93c to 95c, and closed at 94 3-4, a gain of 1 3-4. No. 3 soft at 90 3-4. Rejected No. 1 at 89c L. S.

Corn—No. 2 at 51c, July at 49 3-4c to 50c; September at 50c; No. 3 at 51c; No. 4 at 47c. On the call July sold at 49 1-8c.

Rye—No. 2 for September sold at 65c.

Reading, Burlington, St. Paul, L. & N., Rock Island, Sugar trusts, Omaha, and Whisky trusts contributed the most of the total 116,000 shares sold during the morning hours on the stock exchange. During the opening hour prices were weak and declined 1-8 to 1 1-8 per cent, the latter in Burlington, which was quite freely sold.

In the hour to noon prices were somewhat stronger. Some of the leading stocks were bid up. Whisky trusts and Omaha common were especially strong, advancing 1 per cent each. The remainder of the list advanced fractionally. At 1 p. m. values are but little changed from yesterday's figures.

Referring to the rumor in London that the Denver dividend has been passed, Chairman Cuppell of the Denver board this morning said to a United Press reporter: "There is no idea of considering the dividend question until the company is entirely free from floating debt. The floating debt proper, consisting of debts payable and loans, amount to about $500,000, but the company holds in its treasury bills receivable and other securities considerably in excess of that amount. The unpaid vouchers have been reduced from $1,002,000 in August, 1891, to $370,000, April 30, 1892, which, with all other current liabilities, represent a normal condition.

WAS A DEAD TRIBUNAL.

"Vehm-Gericht," the Mysterious Order Which Once Existed in Germany.

This mysterious order was established in the middle ages throughout Germany. Its members numbered several thousands, of all ranks and conditions, who were free and honorable men. Solemn and awful oaths bound them to absolute secrecy, and communication was effected by signs known only to the initiated. So far they were much the same as any other of the secret orders. But the New York Ledger says their peculiar operation was to administer judgment in those rude and barbarous days. Any king, prince, peer or peasant might be summoned to attend their conclave, and woe be to him did he refuse to obey. Beneath the surface of the ground, in dimly lighted caverns, the judges, with masked faces, took their seats; the other officials, likewise masked, surrounded them. If the accused person was present he was adjudged, sentenced, and, if necessary, executed on the spot. If he failed to appear after three citations, he was sentenced to death, and each member of the court was bound to pursue him to the bitter end of doom. He might be a brother or a father, but none dare warn him of his impending fate. He had defied the "Vehm-Gericht," and he must perforce die, sometimes in his own house. As a proof he was not a victim to lawless violence, his property was never touched, and a knife was planted near him in the ground.

Charles, Duke of Burgundy, was cited three times just before his death, and failed to appear. An English noble found his bed sinking through the floor of his hotel into the earth, and he himself bound and held for judgment. Of course his landlord was a member of the order. And however irregular this course, it helped justice in those cruel days, when might was right and men were serfs. Other courts were slow, uncertain, and difficult of access. This was all at, swift and terrible. It struck once, and had no need to strike again. Escape from its meshes was impossible. The most cunning hider was tracked down in his obscure and distant retreat. And, strange though it may seem, its legal authority as a court of the holy Roman empire was extended until the downfall of that empire, in 1806. It continued to exist in Westphalia, Germany, until 1811. Then the last mysterious shadows of the "Vehm-Gericht" died utterly away.

"Rustlers" are ranchmen who have fenced in small holdings with a view to becoming permanent settlers. Their herds are small, and their ranches are located with a view of cultivating the arable portions; consequently the "Cattle barons" try to drive them out, and in doing so subject the smaller herdsmen to all sorts of petty persecutions.

WAY OFF COLOR.

The hue of health! Who can mistake it? The white brow, the deepened tint of the cheek, these associated with brightness and animation of the eye, a cheery expression of the countenance, are infallible indicia that the liver is performing its functions actively, and that consequently digestion and the bowels are undisturbed. If, however, the complexion and eyeballs have a saffron tint, or the face is drawn and void of sprightliness and animation, the biliary gland is almost certain to be out of order. Rectify the difficulty speedily, thoroughly, with the paramount anti-bilious specific, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which promptly remedies not only the above outward and visible signs of biliousness, but also the sick headaches, constipation, vertigo, fur upon the tongue, nausea, sour breath and pains through the right side which characterize it. The liver is always seriously involved in malaria, for which the Bitters is a sovereign specific. This medicine remedies with equal promptitude and completeness, kidney complaint, dyspepsia, rheumatism and nervousness.

STONE IN TOLEDO

On His Walk from San Francisco to New York.

He Will Do the 3,333 Miles in 134 Days—He Talks to a Bee at the Burnett House.

A gentleman about 32 years of age walked into the office of the Burnett house about 11 o'clock this morning and registered as J. Edwin Stone, of New York. There was nothing about him that attracted special attention; his light suit was of a fashionable cut, a soft hat rested jauntily on his head and he was so fresh and brisk that no one would have imagined that he had just completed a 2,593-mile walk, the distance from San Francisco to Toledo, but he had.

Mr. Stone is walking from San Francisco to New York on a wager. He left the office of the San Francisco Examiner at noon February 22, and will shake hands with Richard K. Fox at the Police Gazette office in New York city, July 4, if nothing happens to prevent.

Talking to a Bee this morning Mr. Stone said: "I am not a professional pedestrian, although all my life I have taken a great interest in athletics. I am not doing this for glory, I assure you, but for money. I am not at liberty to state who are the parties in the wager or what the sum involved is, but I will say that if I win I will receive half the money involved. According to the agreement of the wager I was to walk from San Francisco to New York in 134 days, a distance of 3,333 miles, starting from San Francisco without a cent in my pocket and trusting to luck to pull through all right.

"I have had some pretty rough experiences, the way being blocked by snow, mud, rain, my ankles swelling so that I could not step, and so on, but here I am on my 102d day and 30 miles ahead of the schedule.

"How do I manage to live without money? Well, I have always found someone to boost me along. In the west everybody knew more or less of the wager and its conditions, and there were plenty to give me lodging and food. Then I have lectured and received a little in that way. I walk on an average of 25 miles a day, am feeling good and am confident that I will pull through all right.

"I am going to take a bath now, get shaved and change my clothes, and then start out towards Cleveland."

And he'll get there.

ANOTHER SHORT TWIST

Taken in the Languishing Base Ball Case

In Police Court This Morning and the Fun Continues This Afternoon—Not Much Done.

The trial of the base ball players languishes and promises to stretch out as long as the proverbial Irish mile. This morning the third innings was held in the police court. All the jurors drawn were present with the exception of W. H. Webster and S. S. Knabenshue and Mr. M. I. Wilcox. Mr. J. W. Gunnels was the only one of the defendants in court.

Byron Ritchie addressed the court, saying that information had been filed against 21 persons, and that in his opinion each should have a separate trial.

Prosecutor Wheeler most strenuously insisted on one trial for all the men. "Single trials," would entail a great expense that was unnecessary and could be avoided. These parties knew how matters would stand if they were not here this morning ready for trial, and I think their bail should be forfeited."

The court then continued the case until 1 o'clock this afternoon to look up authorities.

It is probable that it will be decided to try Mr. Gunnels first and bunch the others. The case is attracting considerable attention and the result will be watched with interest. It is probable that the point will be raised that the defendants did not play a game of ball as experts have heretofore testified that a game of ball consisted of nine innings, and in the games in question only eight were played. The jury would possibly disagree if such a point were raised and the case would languish again.

HAD HE WOUND IT?

The Indianapolis Journal says—what every one knows to be false—that women forgive, but never can forget. Possibly the uncharitable remark may be true in certain rare cases.

On the night of March 8, 1891, according to the Journal, Mr. Wickwire brought home a package.

"What have you there, my dear?" asked his wife.

"A clock," said Mr. Wickwire, with perhaps a trace of something unusual in his tone; "a new-fangled clock that runs a whole year without winding. Hereafter I propose to go to sleep in peace."

His words came true; but on the night of March 8, 1892, he was awakened with a great start. He was dreaming at the moment. He was in a railway wreck, and as he thought the broken driving-rod of the overturned engine was slowly piercing his vital organs, he waked as before said, with a start, and found his wife arousing him with her elbow.

"What's the matter?" groaned the husband.

"Did you wind the clock, Henry, dear?"

THE JOURNALIST.

"A man of literature compelled by circumstances to be also a man of business." That is the definition of a journalist, given by Mr. Sala at the Fishmongers' banquet on Wednesday night. It is a good enough definition in its way, though it cannot be considered as invariably accurate. There are a good many so-disant journalists who are certainly not "men of literature," and a good many more, whose claim to the title of journalist is unquestioned, who are certainly not "men of business."—Globe.

THE PERFECT MAN.

There are no perfect men. We have been men and understand the whole tribe. On a clear morning when they are well dressed and the road is clear they look admirably, but none of them enjoy having a passing vehicle splash mud on their newly-blackened boots. None of them look placid when some one treads on their sore corns. If you want to find out that no man is perfect just marry him. But I think that the two sexes are about equal. If you secure for life the companionship of some one about as good as yourself you are to be congratulated. Better have the two blades of a pair of scissors as nearly as possible alike.—Philadelphia Times.

Nothing Succeeds . . . . . Like Success!

The truth of this adage has never been more fittingly illustrated than by the enormous sale of the High Arm No. 9 Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine during the past two years. It is the best the world has ever produced, no extra attachments required to do fancy work. No family who study their own interests will fail to examine the No. 9 before they buy or trade machines with any one. A trial free to all.
